LOCATION AND DIRECTIONS

From Old Street Underground Station (0.5 miles):

Use Exit 2 to exit the station and walk east along Old Street. Cross over the road at the junction of Great Eastern Street, and continue walking east along Old Street, past the 'Holiday Inn' hotel. Continue along Old Street and look for a left turn on to Hoxton Street, where you'll see the 'Electricity Showrooms' on the corner. Walk north along Hoxton Street, eventually past a school on the left hand side and towards Hackney College, situated on the right hand side of Hoxton Street. Fanshaw Street in the next left after the school, with the Hasselblad Studio clearly visible from the corner of Fanshaw Street and Hoxton Street.

From Liverpool Street Station (1.1 miles):

Exit station on to Liverpool Street and turn right towards Sun St. Passage. Turn in to Sun St. Passage and head north, eventually turning left in to Pindar Street. Head West along Pindar Street, and then turn right to head north along Appold Street. In Appold Street, where the road starts to lead to the right, cut through the barriers and head north along Curtain Road, continuing to walk north along Curtain Road right up past the Great Eastern Street intersection, and up to where Curtain Road meets Old Street. Cross over Old Street and head diagonally to the right to walk north along Hoxton Street, where you'll see 'Electricity Showrooms' on the corner. Walk north along Hoxton Street, eventually past a school on the left hand side and towards Hackney College, situated on the right hand side of Hoxton Street. Fanshaw Street in the next left after the school, with the Hasselblad Studio clearly visible from the corner of Fanshaw Street and Hoxton Street.
